Dear Robert Morris School No. 18 Community,

The Governor's Educator of the Year Program highlights educational innovation, student achievement, exemplary teaching, and important services outside the classroom environment that lead to student success. This celebratory program recognizes our state's best teachers and educational services professionals who will be recognized at the Union County Office of Education.

We are proud to announce that the 2019 Governor's Teacher of the Year Robert Morris School No. 18 is awarded to Ms. Elizabeth Loomis. Ms. Loomis is a dedicated, creative, and compassionate educator with a commitment to create a school community that is collaborative and effective. She displays her passion for educating young minds through her sense of humor and creativity. She engages students in lessons that are age appropriate but challenging. Ms. Loomis's flexibility is certainly one of her strong suits. She is always willing to help others in various situations no matter which grade level. She fully understands that children are different, therefore creates lessons that are effectively differentiated and utilizes various strategies to address individual learning needs. It is an honor and a privilege to have her as one of our team members.

This year's Educational Service Provider of the Year for Robert Morris School No. 18 was awarded to Ms. Stephanie Amorim. Ms. Amorim is a vital support in the lives of our kindergarteners. She is an attentive teacher assistant who never hesitates to help others. Ms. Amorim is always willing to provide emotional and academic support to all students. It is inspiring to observe her facilitate instruction through her organization and supervision skills. She thoroughly establishes routine and structure, which makes her a great asset to the progression of students' achievement. Additionally, not only is Ms. Amorim fully dedicated to the success of her students, but also our whole school community. She often volunteers for after school activities and assists fellow staff members whenever she can.

Please join us in celebrating these two amazing professionals for their hard work and dedication that continue to be an important part of the success of our school community.

Sincerely,

Oscar Crespo, Jr.
