Dear Elizabeth Public Schools Learning Community:

As we approach the last week of school, we have many days of excitement and reflection ahead of us during which we celebrate the members of Elizabeth Public Schools, special milestones, and the rich diversity of our school community.

Over the weekend, we will be celebrating Father's Day (June 16) and the start of Eid al-Adha (begins evening of June 16) and on next Thursday, June 20, we will kickoff the start of our eighth grade promotion ceremonies. Following the celebration and observance of Juneteenth on June 21, we will return on Monday, June 24 for our last day of the school year to conclude our eighth grade promotions and to start our high school commencement ceremonies that will continue into Tuesday, June 25.

As we celebrate and observe these upcoming holidays and prepare for these milestone events, I would like to thank you for helping make Elizabeth Public Schools such a special place. I am really looking forward to honoring our graduating students and those moving up to high school over the next week as we conclude another successful school year.

Sincerely,

Olga Hugelmeyer
