

America is a place of freedom,
at least that's what they say:
that everyone should be treated the same.
But, look in our dark history and you will see.
African Americans, taken from their country got used as if they were a machine.
Kobe Bryant, Louis Armstrong, Barack were able to rise above the human injustice, suffering at the hands of man to prove that race.
does not determine someone's heart.

Police officers in America should treat black people with respect.
