

On Earth Day, we remember how important it is to take care of our planet. To do that, we promise to appreciate nature and all it provides for us, by planting flowers for bees to enjoy. We also promise to take responsibility for keeping our environment clean, and remembering how much damage littering can do to our soil, water, and animal habitats. We promise to live by the idea that Everyday is Earth Day!!!

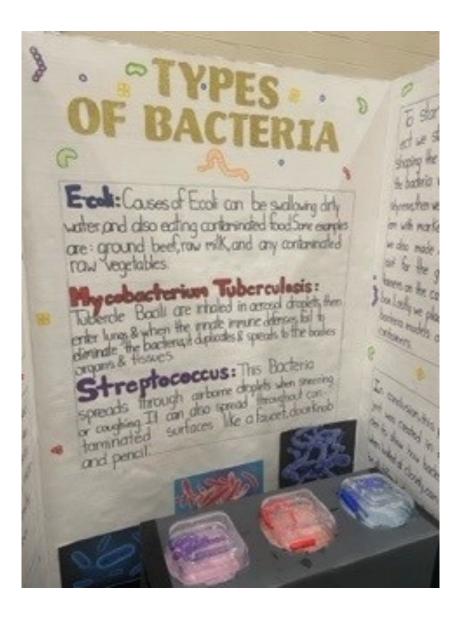

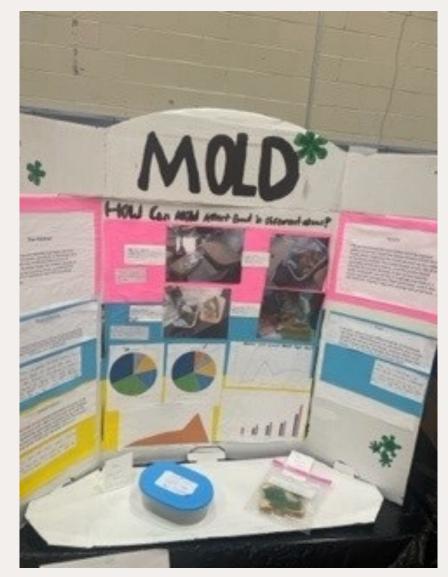

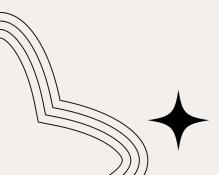

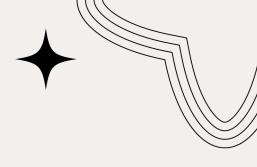

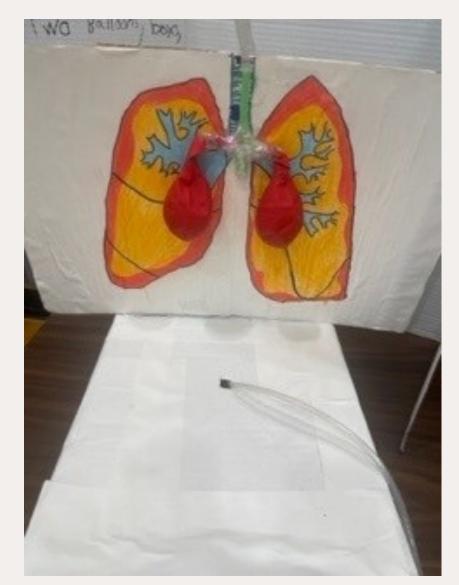

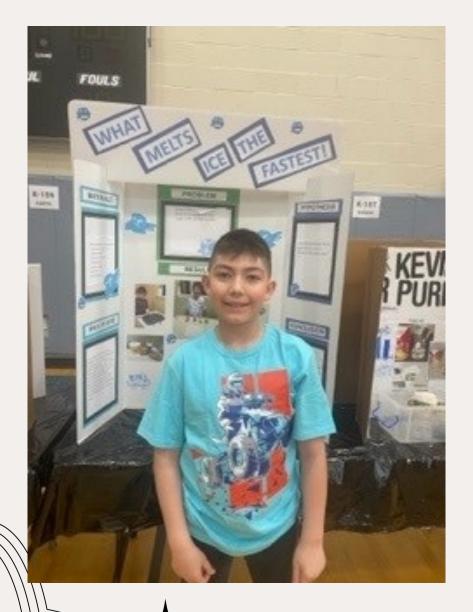

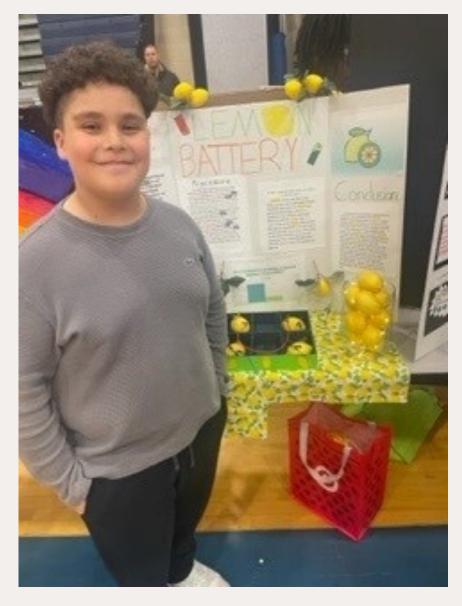

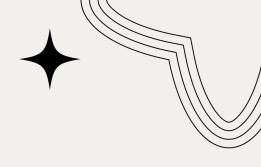

THANK YOU!