Dear Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 Community,

The Governor's Educator of the Year Program highlights educational innovation, student achievement, exemplary teaching, and important services outside the classroom environment that lead to student success. This celebratory program recognizes our state's best teachers and educational services professionals who will be recognized at the Union County Office of Education.

Honorees are exceptionally skilled and dedicated licensed classroom teachers (PK to grade 12 in a public or charter school) where teaching is the primary responsibility rather than administrative or supervisory responsibilities or educational services professionals (ESP) who are listed as one of the eligible enrollment areas. Among several eligibility criteria, they must also be experts in the field who inspire students of all backgrounds and abilities to learn; actively collaborate with colleagues, students, and families to create a strong culture of respect and success; demonstrate leadership and innovation in educational activities; and have the respect and admiration of students, parents and colleagues.

We are proud to announce the 2021 Governor's Teacher of the Year for Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 was awarded to first-grade teacher Ms. Gail Caffrey. Ms. Caffrey has been a member of Elizabeth Public Schools since 2002.

This year's Educational Service Provider of the Year for Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 was awarded to Child Development Associate (CDA) Ms. Janet Hasegawa. Ms. Hasegawa has been a member of Elizabeth Public Schools since 2010.

For more background on our Governor's Educator of the Year Program honorees, both at Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 and throughout the district, and how they are achieving excellence at our schools, please visit www.epsnj.org/GEOY2021.

Please join us in celebrating these two amazing professionals for the work they have done, and continue to do, for our school community and district.

Sincerely,

Doris Farrell
