ONEFEST '13 Celebrates Elizabeth Public Schools' Many Excellent Stories

The exceptional talents of Elizabeth Public Schools' students and teachers were apparent in ONEFEST '13. The richly decorated, inspired exhibits of storynation, this year's theme, showcased literature spanning all ages. Each exhibit, from Rainbow Fish, to The Lion King to The Lord of the Rings, created a life size storybook experience.

The festival, which began on Friday, November 1 and continued through November 2, showcased Elizabeth Public Schools' excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts. Hundreds of students, parents and community members attended the two day event to view exhibits, performances, and sporting events, as well as to participate in many family activities.

Board President Tony Monteiro, along with Vice President Elcy Castillo-Ospina, officially opened ONEFEST '13 on Friday evening. Among those who attended was special guest Jim Duffy, President of the Elizabeth Rotary Club who received an award from the Elizabeth Public Schools for his contributions to promoting literacy in the community.

On Friday, exhibits from every school capturing storynation's literature theme were on display in the Thomas Edison Career & Technical Academy. Highlights included a larger than life book which projected a movie in The Fantastic Flying Books of Mr. Morris Lessmore; a large mosaic of Frankenstein's monster created by students; a puppet show of Charlotte's Web; and a larger than life Three Little Pigs story. In addition, over 150 gently used books were collected to distribute to children in the Elizabeth Community.

Student performers impressed the crowds on Friday and Saturday with vocal, dance, instrumental, and theatrical performances inspired by children's stories and novels.

Talented culinary arts students, under the supervision of Culinary Arts Teacher, Chef Paul Conti, prepared tantalizing cuisine. Tasty treats were able to be sampled in the Edison Cafeteria, which was aptly named The Cook Book.

Athletics was also well represented with the Elizabeth freshman football team playing Phillipsburg in the morning, featuring a half time show by the championship Marching Band. Soccer was next to take the field with an Administrators and EEA soccer contest, followed by All Star Middle School soccer games. Elizabeth's team members also participated in a slow-pitch softball tournament.

Saturday afternoon, the storynation showcase and performances continued amid indoor and outdoor activities for children and adults. A petting zoo, pumpkin patch and pumpkin decorating, bounce houses, the NJ Hall of Fame Mobile Museum, the Game Truck, and a mascot race kept people entertained throughout the day. The festivities concluded on Saturday evening with a large crowd applauding contestants in the "Elizabeth's Got Talent" show. Eighth grader Jacqueline Crespo of Elmora School No. 12 won the talent show with an amazing performance of Set Fire to the Rain.

Elizabeth Board of Education President Tony Monteiro said, "I am very proud of the many talented students and teachers that work together every day to make Elizabeth Public Schools excel. ONEFEST '13 was a wonderful way to involve the entire community in a celebration of the excellent achievements in academics, athletics, and the arts taking place in our schools."

Board member Carlos Trujillo added, "The pride these students and team members take in their work and in their schools is clearly visible in every elaborate display and in every performance."

EHS Wins the Silver National Recognition Award from the Alliance for a Healthier Generation

Chrystal Rinehold, Physical Education Teacher, at Elizabeth High School Upper Academy, visited Little Rock Arkansas to receive the Silver National Recognition Award from The Alliance for a Healthier Generation. The Alliance works in partnership with The Clinton Foundation seeking to recognize school efforts to reduce obesity and promote healthier food and lifestyle choices. The award is quite an honor as only 39 other schools in the nation won a silver or gold award. President Clinton presided over the ceremony.

Michael Cummings, Principal of Elizabeth High School said, "I would like to thank Ms. Rinehold for her extraordinary initiative in bringing this honor to Elizabeth High School. She was successful in promoting teamwork among the school community to make this happen. I would also like to thank her supervisor, Joe Przytula, for his leadership and support."

Dr. Albert Einstein Academy's Pep Rally Encourages Students to "Reach for the Stars"

On September 20, Dr. Albert Einstein Academy held a pep rally to build excitement for the new school year. The theme for this year's pep rally was "Reach for the Stars." Each grade level made a banner that reflected their student growth outcomes and an assigned character education theme. Examples of themes included sharing, friendship, teamwork, cooperation, respect, self discipline, and compassion, among others.

Students entered the pep rally as a parade, marching down to the gymnasium with their banners proudly displayed at the front of the class. Exciting music filled the air as students sang the school song and were led in the school cheer by music teachers Mr. Schwarz and Mrs. DiFonzo. There was even an appearance by the school mascot, the Einstein Eagle. Guidance Counselor Ms. Leonard recognized students with perfect NJASK scores, while gym teacher Mr. Gluck recognized all the student athletes. Students were able to participate in several friendly basketball competitions. The pep rally concluded with a speech from Principal. Seniszyn and Vice Principal Mellody wishing all students a very successful school year.

EBOE Members Visit AVID Classes at School No. 18

Robert Morris School No.18 is one of several schools implementing AVID as an initiative to increase students' interest and motivation in attending college. The AVID College Readiness System (ACRS) accelerates student learning, uses research based methods of effective instruction, and provides meaningful and motivational professional learning. Students learn efficient note-taking strategies and other skills which motivate them to attend college after graduation. Elizabeth Board of Education Commissioners Anthony Padlo and Paul Perreira visited School No. 18's AVID classrooms and were amazed at the progress the students have already made in the first month of school. They agreed to be interviewed by AVID students, which was great experience for students, staff, and the board members. They promised the students another visit to check on their progress.

Students and Staff at Madison-Monroe School No.16 Unite Against Bullying

Students and Staff at Madison-Monroe School No. 16 participated in the Unite Against Bullying Campaign by wearing orange to show the school's unity against bullying. The campaign promotes wearing ORANGE to show unity and send a message of support and caring to those who had experienced bullying. Anti-Bullying Specialists Mrs. Uniacke and Ms. Bean coordinated this event to show those that have been bullied, they are not alone and to send a message that School #16 is a Bully-Free Zone, supported by students and staff.

Elizabeth Fire Department visits Pre-K students at School No. 21

The Pre-K students at Victor Mravlag School No. 21 received a visit from three Elizabeth firefighters during Fire Prevention Month. The firefighters demonstrated to the students how they work together to get ready for a fire. The children saw them dress in full gear. They talked about safety practices during a fire and fire prevention. These firefighters are parents of Pre-K children. The community and neighborhood school are working together!

Guess Who-o-o-o?

George Washington School No. 1 second graders in room 403 were able to learn more about each other from a writing activity. In the activity, Who's Who-o-o-o?, the students had to describe themselves. The wise owls used descriptive words as clues in their writing. It was fun learning more about each other! Now everyone in 403 is a WISE OWL!

Teddy Bear Day at School No. 28

After discovering that October 11th is Bring Your Teddy to Work Day, Mrs. Kathleen Pepe from Juan Pablo Duarte — José Julián Martí School No. 28 suggested to the faculty to have everyone bring in their favorite bedtime pal for Show & Tell!!! Some classrooms took it a step further by writing about their pal by using one of the writing prompts provided by Mrs. Pepe. The students had a lot of fun sharing their teddy bears with their classmates!

Dedication for iPrep Academy School No. 8

On October 22, 2013, iPrep Academy School No. 8 held their formal dedication ceremony. In attendance were CEO and Co-Founder of New Classrooms, Joel Rose; Rev. Fabio Roy DeJesus Brenes-Chaves of St. Patrick's Church; Board Members; team members; as well as many parents and community members. Middle school students provided tours of the school to visitors. Each grade presented a student speech about dreams for the future. The Fifth and Seventh Grade Chorus performed, along with a dance performance with accompaniment by the Tablet Band. iPrep Academy showcased its special features including one-to-one technology, the AVID program, and Teach to One Math for middle school students.

Walking for Health

Parents, students, and staff members walked together to school as one of many healthy events being held this year at Robert Morris School No. 18. It was a united effort with many families and staff members walking along with students. Walk to School Day started as an event aimed at building awareness for the need to walk as a way to be healthy. Walking is fun, creates healthier habits, keeps a cleaner environment, promotes safety, and helps develop a sense of community. Everyone can't wait to do the next walk for health.

Mabel G. Holmes 2013 Community Garden

School Social Worker Mr. Zografos, along with students and team members of Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 created & dedicated a community flower garden to honor parents, guardians, grandparents, & community members who have been instrumental in supporting the School No. 5 learning community. Various flowers and bulbs were planted, including mums, black-eyed Susans, hyacinth, lilies, tulips & sunflowers.

During this educational experience, students learned about horticulture & life skills. Everyone at School 5 is eager for an early spring so they can see their hard work in full bloom.

Building Bridges at Madison-Monroe School No. 16

A Puppet Musical about conflict resolution entitled "Building Bridges" was presented to students in Grades 4-6 at Madison-Monroe School #16. The puppet show focused on peaceful conflict resolution and peer mediation throughout the story which follows a student's day at home, at school, on the playground, and in the neighborhood. Anti-Bullying Specialists Ms. Bean and Ms. Uniacke felt the show was a realistic depiction of student daily life and that the students gained relatable skills consistent with the Anti-Bullying curriculum being taught.

Estuary Day at School No. 28

On October 11, twenty five 8th graders from Juan Pablo Duarte – José Julián Martí School No. 28 attended Estuary Day at Peterstown Community Center. Students were able to observe science stations that depicted many current science issues. Students participated in games designed to help them gain a better understanding of how to limit pollution, strengthen their knowledge about how items are best recycled, and learn how to determine water quality. Since School 28 is located next to the Port and Marina, many of the concerns discussed at Estuary Day were relevant to students. The students could begin to develop an appreciation for what is essentially their “backyard” environment.

Hamilton Students Pay Tribute to a Hero

During Respect Week activities at Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy, Mrs. Craven’s social studies classes paid tribute to Malala Yousafzai, the 16 year-old Pakistani girl who was shot in the head by the Taliban for promoting education for females. Among other activities, students participated in a Socratic seminar in which they discussed the article entitled, The Bravest Girl in the World.

“One of the best things to come from our study of Malala,” stated Mrs. Craven, “was the realization of how precious education is. We don’t realize how important it is until we read of a culture where it is taken from people.”

Malala, who has recovered from her injury, refers to education as a ‘precious gem’ and continues to speak out for those who cannot.

Teach to One

At iPrep Academy School No. 8, students in grades 5-8 participate in a math program called Teach to One. In this innovative new program, students participate in learning through different modalities. During each 90 minute period, students attend two sessions. They may be learning in small groups with other students, working on the computer, or learning in a traditional style setting. Classes have mixed age groups, with the senior cohort consisting of grades 7 and 8, and the junior cohort, grades 5 and 6. Class sizes are around 80 students, with 4 teachers and multiple teacher residents to oversee and facilitate.

Elizabeth High School's Students Earn Financial Literacy Recognition for the Second Consecutive Year

Elizabeth High School's successful financial literacy program was recognized for the second year in a row by the WISE Financial Literacy Certification pilot program working in partnership with the New Jersey Department of Education. Mr. Frank Russo, Economics teacher at Elizabeth High School, will be formally recognized at a ceremony in New York City on November 5 for his 12th grade students' achievements in the program.

Mr. Russo's students scored over 90% on the WISE Financial Literacy Certification test earning them Gold Award status in the program.

Principal Mike Cummings of Elizabeth High School said, "We are very proud of winning this award and Mr. Russo and the students should be commended for their consistent demonstration of excellence. Financial literacy is a survival skill and an essential part of a well-rounded education."

Nicholas S. La Corte Peterstown School No. 3 Keeps Kids Safe

Nicholas S. LaCorte Peterstown School No. 3 invited the Elizabeth Fire Department to speak with grades K-5 on the importance of fire safety. Students participated in an interactive presentation including Principal Jennifer A. Campel suiting up in fire fighter gear and performing a timed drill for students. An onsite fire engine and ambulance were available for students to go inside and learn more about fire safety.

Native American Totem Poles

Ms. Malcolm's 5th grade class from Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27 conducted research on Native American totem poles. They were excited to report their findings by through construction of an informational and the creation of their own unique totem poles.

School No.21's Fourth Grade Explores Various Ecosystems

Mrs. Armento and Mrs. Wood's fourth grade classes are exploring ecosystems and their food chains/webs. They first investigated soil and its ingredients. They then moved on to plants which are producers, then to crickets who were eaten by the anoles. Finally, they observed earthworms (the decomposers) by measuring and placing them into a terrarium to see how they interacted. At the end of the marking period, fourth graders will be able to create a diorama of an ecosystem of their choice. School 21 students are looking forward to presenting their projects to their classmates. Teachers can't wait to see the level of creativity students have to offer!

The Pursuit of a Big Dream

The AVID seventh graders at Madison-Monroe School No. 16 have been creating bulletin boards and supporting each other on their college readiness skills "with the end in mind—college!"

The Sky Hawks begin each day in their AVID classroom, with Ms. Flemm, reviewing essentials for Academic success. The desire to go to college is expressed daily and the willingness to work hard is evident in this group of students. They have created a family that supports and challenges each other by promoting academic self-management.

The Vote Is In!

First grade students at Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy School No. 26 were able to experience what it really feels like to vote. Their teacher Ms. Lisa Gumbman, in collaboration with Kean University intern, Miss Krystle Daddio, decided to create a voting booth to teach students about the upcoming Election Day. Instead of voting for a person, the class had to select which animal to adopt from the Conserve Wildlife Foundation of New Jersey. This would incorporate a part of their International Baccalaureate Central Idea, "Humans have a responsibility to protect wildlife". The students "signed in", then went inside the voting booth to cast their ballots. The class tallied all of the votes at the completion of the exercise and the majority had voted to adopt a bobcat.

Following the activity, students were asked how they felt about voting in the booth. Some explained that it was "Exciting!" Other students noted the benefit of voting privately so as not to feel pressured to vote for something they did not really want to. One student summed the activity up nicely by stating that it made him feel "empowered".

Nicholas S. LaCorte Peterstown School No. 3 Roars Against Bullying

The School No. 3 Tigers took on a school wide initiative for the month of October. Connecting the popular song "Roar," by Katy Perry to the themes of Respect, Anti-Bullying, and Anti Violence, homerooms from Kindergarten through eighth grade were challenged to develop a writing piece and bulletin board display relating the song to the themes. District Anti Bullying Coordinator Eunice Couselo and District Psychologist Lucila Hernandez came to judge the bulletin board displays and enjoyed a singing performance by Ms. Low's 1st grade class which included their own dance moves!

Grandparent's Day Poems - School No. 16

Raisa Thunig-Pichardo and Thomas Sandoval from Ms. Llano's and Mrs. Luzardo's 5th grade Bilingual Magnet program read a poem for all the grandparents on Grandparent's Day. Students were very enthusiastic to read the poems to all the grandparents in the audience. Raisa read the poem, "El Abuelo" in Spanish. Thomas read the poem, "Grandmas and Grandpas" in English.

Snap! Crackle! Pop!

Ronald Reagan Academy has begun another year of Community Service Projects with its annual pop tab collection campaign. Families, students, and staff are asked to collect the pop tabs that are on the top of aluminum cans of soda and food, and to send them to school. The pop tabs are then collected and weighed. The proceeds are donated to Ronald Mc Donald House, which provides a place for the families of young cancer patients to live while they are recuperating in a nearby hospital. The families can then concentrate on helping their loved one to recover from this serious illness. With this project, students learn the importance of helping children who are less fortunate than themselves.

Students Commit to Show Respect and Help Create a Bully-Free World

Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 social worker Christine Flaherty, along with school counselors Rosaria Scaff and Lisa O'Leary, used the Week of Respect as the perfect opportunity to meet with students to have an informative discussion about bullying. A PowerPoint presentation helped to provide information on the definition of bullying and the subtle differences between bullying and conflict. A review of the New Jersey state law against bullying and what to do when students are bullied or they witness someone being bullied was offered. To signal their commitment, students recited the No Bullying Pledge. With their thumbprint signatures, they made public their dedication to help reduce bullying and its effects on students' lives, turning a week of respect into a life spent experiencing its true meaning.

"Bullying has an effect on our everyday lives and you could see that from the different reactions of the students who attended the presentation. It doesn't matter what school you go to; bullying is all around us. So, the assembly was helpful to wake students up that bullying is not funny and it can have a major effect on the lives of bullying victims," shared student Jasmine Valverde.

Character Education Incentives Are Rewarding For All

John Marshall School No. 20 was off to a great start with their Character Education Program. Students and teachers alike got into the spirit of "Crazy Hat/Hair Day" as part of a reward incentive for embracing the Trio of Traits – Respect, Responsibility & Self-Control/Discipline. Students were invited to participate in "Crazy Hat/Hair Day" by earning a special ticket for following the John Marshall School Trio of Traits. The entire learning community looks forward to many more "rewarding" days in the future.

School 29's Got Talent

On October 10, Dr. Albert Einstein Academy hosted its annual Karaoke Night, known as School 29's Got Talent! Each contestant was asked to pick from a variety of karaoke hits. Students rehearsed feverishly to make sure that they had the lyrics (and moves) down before the big night. Over 20 students competed in the singing competition, and a panel of judges determined the winner. The decision by the judges was unanimous; singer/guitar player Luis Guitierrez will represent Dr. Albert Einstein Academy at the district Elizabeth's Got Talent Contest.

First Annual Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 Walk for a Cure Raises Hope

The spirit of community and helping others was in full force on October 31, 2013 as the Terence C. Reilly School community dressed in pink socks, pink t-shirts, pink wigs and pink tutus, committing their energies to the First Annual Terence C. Reilly Walk for a Cure to support the Susan G. Komen foundation and breast cancer research. Organized by the Terence C. Reilly Wellness Council and the PTO, over $2,000 was raised through the sale of pink socks proudly worn during the 5K walk.

"Nothing But The Truth" at George Washington School No. 1

1. Is telling only part of the truth dishonest?
2. Are there situations in which unfairness to an individual is justified?
3. Should a person always tell the truth even if the truth will hurt others?
4. Does justice require more than the enforcement of rules?
5. Are there circumstances when rules should be broken?

Students were asked to keep the five questions in mind while discussing within their groups what the "truth" really means. The students then reported out to the larger group what the consensus of their group discussion was. Afterwards, the class was able to debate each group's answer.

Newark Liberty Airport Career Day event

On October 29 the 6th grade class from Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy joined with other schools for the Newark Liberty Airport Career Day event. After passing through airport security, the students were brought to Hangar 56 where they met with Emergency Services personnel, TSA employees and vendors to the aviation industry from around the region. Afterwards the students were invited to board several different aircraft, passenger and freight, where they had the chance to explore the flight decks, accommodations, and cargo holds. Several students have family and friends that work in the Airport Facilities and it was a great opportunity for the 6th grade to develop a new appreciation of all the different jobs it takes to keep one of the world's greatest airports running!

"Greetings" from Ronald Reagan Academy

A select group of students from grades two through seven at Ronald Reagan Academy School No. 30 participate in the Student Greeter Program. Teachers and guidance counselors selected students based upon their leadership and communication skills. The young guides provide a warm welcome combined with useful information about their school as they escort visitors to various destinations in the building.

Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy Celebrates "Week of Respect"

'Respect Week' was celebrated at Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy on October 7th and continued through October 11th. During this week, teachers and students continued to promote a culture of respect, anti-bullying and peace through a variety of activities. Older students were paired with younger students to read a book about respect. Other activities to promote respect and peace included a team building scavenger hunt and designing classroom doors on respect. On Friday, the students met in the gym where they again were paired with younger students and participated in team building lessons. The faculty and students will continue throughout the school year to engage in activities that promote a positive and respectful school climate.

Trunk or Treat at School No. 27

Over 200 parents witnessed spooky goblins, scary witches, frightening skeletons along with Disney Princesses and Transformers for The 5th annual Trunk or Treat Halloween Celebration at Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27. On October 31, children Pre-K thru 4th grade, paraded in their costumes through the parking garage and in front of many excited parents. Judith Gomez, Sharon Katzanek and Steven Lake made special contributions to make this day special for the children.

Mix It Up At Lunch Day

Studies have shown that interactions across group lines can help reduce prejudice. When students interact with those who are different from them, biases and misconceptions can fall away. Mix it Up at Lunch day, celebrated nationally on October 29, asks students to move out of their comfort zones and connect with someone new over lunch. The students in Mrs. Gorner's, Mrs. Cameli's, and Mrs. Kauffman's 4th grade classes, at Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27 piloted the "Mix it Up at Lunch Day". The students in the 3 classes were assigned tables based on the month they were born. Students got a chance to talk to different children and make new friends.

School No.21 Zumba/Game Event

Victor Mravlag School No. 21's first Zumba/Game event was success. The evening was attended by parents, grandparents, children and team member of School 21. Zumba involves dance and aerobic elements. Zumba's choreography incorporates hip-hop, soca, samba, salsa, merengue, mambo and martial arts. Squats and lunges are also a part of the class. While the adults enjoyed their class, younger guests were hosted in the pre-kindergarten wing of the school where they took part in games of strategy, arts and crafts and a fun game of "Simon Says".

Dr. Albert Einstein Academy Celebrates Respect and Anti-Violence Week

On October 7, Dr. Albert Einstein Academy began its weeklong "Respect Week" celebration. Then on October 21, School 29 began its weeklong "Anti-Violence Week." School Guidance Counselor Ms. Leonard believes that Respect and Anti-Violence week show everyone that harassment, intimidation, and bullying will not be tolerated in School 29, and respect and compassion are essential to every student's education.

On October 7, all students and faculty members wore blue in support of "Stomp out Bullying Day." Every morning started with students reading a quote promoting peace and compassion. Pre-k classes made a poster to promote Respect and Anti-Violence Week. Students were also given a star and wrote what they can do to "be a star" when it comes to respect. Seventh and eighth grade students were asked to create a patch that demonstrates what respect means to them. This patch was then displayed as part of a quilt. These special weeks in October helped to remind students the importance of being compassionate to others.
