Elizabeth Public Schools, Elizabeth, NJ

November 20, 2015

"Intelligence plus character-that is the goal of true education." – Martin Luther King, Jr.

Traveling Guitar Foundation Supports Music Programs at Four More Schools

The Traveling Guitar Foundation (TGF) returned to Elizabeth, New Jersey, the hometown of guitarist and founder Damon Marks, for the third consecutive year to inspire students through music education. TGF has made new donations of Schecter guitars, Blackstar amplifiers and percussion instruments provided by Guitar Center to four music programs at Elizabeth Public Schools.

The musical supplies were donated to Benjamin Franklin School No. 13, Nicholas Murray Butler School No. 23, Charles J. Hudson School No. 25, and Juan Pablo Duarte - José Julián Martí School No. 28.

Renowned guitarist/songwriter Damon Marks, founder of TGF presented the musical supplies and performed for the students. Marks developed his passion for music while attending the Elizabeth Public Schools.

"It is always wonderful when I have the opportunity to return home and give the gift of music and music education back to my community," said Marks. "The kids are always super excited during the live performances we do during each school visit, which includes participation by their own peers, and just being able to put new equipment into their hands empowers them to develop a relationship with an instrument and a love of music."

Autumn and Our Five Senses

Throughout the month of October, students from Donald Stewart ECC School No. 51 participated in an Autumn Scavenger Hunt in the large and small courtyards looking for items to add to the classroom Science Area. Students drew pictures of their findings in the science journal and labeled their work.

School No. 28 Alumni Association

Juan Pablo Duarte-José Julián Martí School No. 28 is proud to announce the creation of its very own Alumni Association for former graduates. The association already has 118 members. The association serves as a way to help former students with their goals of continuing their education, organize community service opportunities, and providing an opportunity to stay connected and network with other Alumni members.

Election Day

On November 3, students at Frances C. Smith ECC School No. 50 voted for their favorite area of the classroom. To start the day, teachers read about Election Day to students. Students were given paper ballots to fill out in their classrooms. They placed their secret ballots into the ballot box outside of the office on their way to Gross Motor Time outdoors & waited for the results.

The kitchen area was the winner. This is an area where students learn a lot of new language & social skills, including decision-making, through play. Each classroom graphed the results with students.

Fall in Ms. Frees' Class

Items associated with the fall season have served to provide students from Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27 the opportunity to learn about Art, Math and Science in Ms. Frees' classroom. Students created graphs, and learned about place value by using pumpkin seeds.

Fall is Here!

A Special Visit from the Elizabeth Fire Department

The Kindergarten and First Grade Students of John Marshall School No. 20 received a very special visit from the Elizabeth Fire Department this October! Firefighters discussed Fire Safety, Awareness and Prevention with students and provided time for Q&A! Students were taught to "Get Low and Go" if they were ever in a fire. They learned to remain calm and call for help immediately if they ever smelled or saw smoke inside of their home, school or neighboring buildings. Students were fascinated throughout this visit and most importantly learned safety techniques around Fire Prevention and Awareness.

Week of Respect

Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy School No. 26

'Respect Week' at Edreira Academy served to continue to promote a culture of respect, peace and anti-bullying through a variety of activities, such as the Respect Quilt & Peace maker & Peace breaker. Lessons designed to promote respect and foster positive communication between students.

Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5

Ja'Don Taylor an 8th grade student at Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 kicks off Week of Respect by making a public announcement to his fellow students introducing the purpose of the week and reciting a quotation about respect.

Week of Respect

Donald Stewart Early Childhood Center School No. 51

Donald Stewart ECC celebrated Week of Respect with teachers reading a variety of different books that promoted respect.

The Kindness Tree is displayed on the lobby bulletin board displaying what respects means to the students.

Elizabeth High School

For the week of respect, students at Elizabeth High School Lower Academy under the direction of Mrs. Nicole Lemoine, dance teacher created an opportunity for students to pair up and give one another a "high five" via a compliment or positive adjective. Each student received a "high five" hand that was displayed along the hallway on first floor, thus creating a "Hallway of High Fives."

Week of Respect

Juan Pablo Duarte - José Julián Martí School No. 28

Anti-Bully Specialist Wilma Helm organized Unity Day on October 21. The halls were a glow with varying hues of orange worn by team members and the doors were adorned with an orange ribbon to support this event to promote kindness, acceptance, inclusion and character. Team members gathered shared strategies to encourage character and proactive approaches to conflict resolutions.

Nicholas S. LaCorte-Peterstown School No. 3

Students learned to actively demonstrate acts of respect. Following rules, being safe, and showing effort were a few student responses. Students in various grade levels participated in relay races to spell the word respect. Using Rules, Effort, Safety, Purpose, Enthusiasm, Challenge, and Teamwork were introduced and displayed as well! Physical education teachers Donna Brooks, Tom Goodman, and Mike Harms provided a lesson on RESPECT.

Victor Mravlag School No. 21

On behalf of The New Jersey State Police, Trooper Reinaldo Cruz has collaborated with Victor Mravlag School No. 21 for the 2015-2016 school year to improve the school community. Trooper Cruz addressed the students in grades 3-8 during three separate assemblies on the negative effects of bullying and the importance of respecting one another. Trooper Cruz encouraged all the students to become role models.

Week of Respect

Dr. Albert Einstein Academy School No. 29

The atmosphere at School No. 29 was filled with 'blue electricity' as the school celebrated Stomp Out Bullying Day. The School Counselor and Social Worker worked together to get the message out about bullying prevention when school opened in September. On October 5 the first day of Respect Week, the staff and students were invited to wear a blue shirt to show support of this important cause. Blue Shirt Day happens every October and is one of the national campaigns sponsored by Stomp Out Bullying. More information on stomp out bullying can be obtained at www.stompoutbullying.org

William F. Halloran School No. 22

The students of William F. Halloran concluded the Week of Respect by creating an on-site art installation in the center hall of the school. The installation calls for a tree to grow over the year making the work of art a continuous and ever changing installation. The title of the work is "Rooted in Respect We Can Grow!"

The installation features a tree whose trunk is comprised of student notes on what respect means to them. The tree will continue to grow as students demonstrate respect or display random acts of kindness. The leaves and branches will represent acts of respect and kindness.

Week of Respect

Christopher Columbus School No. 15

Students participated in different activities for the Week of Respect: School Counselor Ms. Fabi Ramos, social worker Ms. Reynolds and intern social worker Monica Salerno put together Anti-bullying lessons and visited classrooms to share them with students. As part of the activities, students signed Ribbons, wrote Anti-bullying quotes, and formed a peace sign in the schoolyard as an antiviolence activity.

Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy

Students and team members celebrated Respect Week in a variety of ways. Bulletin boards sprouted up everywhere highlighting the importance of the pillars of character: Caring, Respect, Responsibility, and Citizenship. Students were encouraged to show their support by wearing tee shirts aligned with these pillars, and each class attended assemblies that emphasized the importance of these character traits. A highlight of the assemblies was an interpretive dance presentation that was choreographed by Ms. Camp-Colon's Advanced Dance students. Teachers created lesson plans to reinforce the ideals of this initiative in order to promote a comfortable learning environment for every student.

Week of Respect

George Washington Academy School No. 1 & Jerome Dunn Academy School No. 9

On October 8, during the Week of Respect, School No. 1 and 9 hosted a joint Peace Parade. The purpose of the Peace Parade was to promote self-respect, respect towards others and the community. Team members and students from both schools united and walked outside the building with student-created banners and sang respect songs as they circled the building in a display of peace, respect, and unity.

Woodrow Wilson School No. 19

During the Week of Respect, students, parents, and team members created a Respect frame. As part of the frame, each student created an illustration of what respect in school means to them. Students and parents were invited to view the frame. It was a great event; students showed the true meaning of respect!

Abraham Lincoln School No. 14

School No. 14 engaged students in activities during "Week of Respect," such as morning announcements pertaining to respect and examples of how students can respect themselves and others. In the classrooms, students engaged in meaningful discussions and activities about respect for self through food, exercise, and choice of friends.

As a culminating event, names of students observed doing respectful acts either to others or the environment were announced over the loud speaker and the students received a $10.00 gift certificate card from Barnes and Nobles.

Week of Respect

Elmora School No. 12

During morning announcements, a student read a quote of the day that focused on respect and kindness. As a kick-off to the Week of Respect, October 5-October 9, School Guidance Counselor, Mrs. Labatte and School Social Worker, Mrs. Brito presented an assembly encouraging students to work together as a family. Students in grades Pre-K-8 participated in a poster and essay contest on the topic of kindness and respect. As the winners were announced over the intercom, students excitedly rushed to the office where they were presented with a certificate and treated to a pizza party.

Nicholas S. LaCorte-Peterstown School No. 3

October was Harassment, Bullying, and Intimidation (HIB) Awareness Month. The 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students had the opportunity to meet Detective Nick Veltre from the Union County Juvenile Unit to learn about cyber safety. Detective Veltre engaged students in an interactive presentation on using the internet and social media safely and appropriately as well as the potential consequences of their misuse. Students also discussed what it means to be a responsible digital citizen. Students were also made aware of the possible repercussions for any irresponsible digital behavior as it pertains to the HIB Law.

Robert Morris School No. 18

In honor of respect week, students created a "Tree of Respect" with ideas on how to treat people with respect.

Fall Harvest Festival

On October 30, Pre-k students at Madison-Monroe School No. 16 celebrated the arrival of the Fall season with a Harvest Festival outdoors. The children dressed up like cowboys and cowgirls, and enjoyed games and activities such as: Tossing a ring on the pumpkin, Leaf Rubbings, Fishing for leaves, acorns and pinecones, Sweeping the pumpkin, Toilet paper bowling, and Painting a cardboard tree using corks. The children had a blast!!!

14 for 14

Fourteen students from Abraham Lincoln School No. 14 participated in the 2015 Summer Reading Program at the Elizabeth Public Library. Pictured with their "Reading Award" are cousins from the same third grade classroom! Keep up the good work and keep reading!

Paint the School Pink

The Halloran Huskies Family at William F. Halloran School No. 22@31 participated in a huge school wide event called "Paint the School Pink" & Lee Denim Day for Breast Cancer Awareness month sponsored by the Student Council.

The school raised over $617, which was donated to the Susan G. Komen for the Cure, Breast Cancer Foundation.

Einstein Pumpkin Patch & Fall Family Fun Night

Dr. Albert Einstein Academy School No. 29's PTO sponsored the 2nd Annual in-school pumpkin patch where each PreK-3rd grade student received a free pumpkin. Students dressed like farmers and the "Best Dressed" was awarded to 4th grader, Lyric Thompson. That night the school also celebrated the 1st Annual Fall Family Fun Night. There were over 600 students, family members, staff and alumni in attendance. Families decorated pumpkins they received from the pumpkin patch, as well as decorated a trick-or-treat bag. Many students flaunted beautiful face paint designs and glitter tattoos, thanks to some very talented 8th graders. Two lucky winners took home a fall holiday basket and one very lucky winner hit the jackpot with the 50/50! Fall themed refreshments were available including apple cider and fresh apple cider donuts. It was a fun-filled day.

EHS Goes Pink for Breast Cancer

On October 30, the Elizabeth High School freshman club hosted a Pink Day at Lower Academy. Students and staff wore pink in observance of Breast Cancer Awareness month. The hallways of Lower Academy were covered in shades of pink as students switched classes. The students who participated in this event were eager to create awareness for breast cancer awareness.

Hamilton Students Show Commitment to Unity

In keeping with National Bullying Prevention Month, Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy students wore orange for Unity Day to demonstrate continuing commitment to unity and respect for one another. October 21st was the day designated for everyone to come together—in schools, communities, and online — to send one large ORANGE message of support, hope, and to show unity against bullying and promote united for kindness, acceptance and inclusion.

Halloween Trunk or Treat at Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27

Over 200 parents attended the 7th annual Trunk or Treat Halloween Celebration at Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27.

Visitors encountered spooky goblins, superheroes, scary witches, and frightening skeletons as well as Disney's Elsa, Anna and Olaf.

On October 30 2015 children Pre-K thru 5th grade, paraded in their costumes through the parking garage and before many excited parents. Music could be heard throughout the garage courtesy of Mr. Steven Lake.

Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month

CELEBRATE
Hispanic Heritage Month

"P" is for Picasso. P is also... for puppets! The students in Mrs. Phyllis Taub Fifth grade class at Madison Monroe School No. 16 observed Hispanic Heritage Month and saw math, art, history and language arts come together. How? They made Pablo Picasso hand puppets to celebrate his work. The puppet makers took special note of the parallel lines placed on Picasso's shirt and considered whether the angles of each puppet's arms were acute, obtuse, or straight. Students used a variety of geometric shapes to complete his face.

Students Get Future Ready For Career Success

As a kickoff to the annual "Dress for Success at AOF" Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr. Health and Public Safety Academy's NAF -Be Future Ready, Academy of Finance students wore corporate business attire to support career and life skills development for future successes.

Ms. Alyssa Lopez and Mr. Hector Munoz, business teachers, gave students tips and guidelines for dressing to make a good first impression for the college application process and job interviews. Students were encouraged to choose wardrobe choices as their budget permits. Good tips shared with all students are being self-confident, goal-oriented, and displaying a positive attitude in character and in dress.

No Bullying Zones

Christopher Columbus School No. 15 "No Bullying Zone" has been working on different activities to support the Anti-bullying Campaign. One of the activities was "The Anti-Bullying Poster Contest" held for all students to express their feelings about Bullying through art.

The purpose of this contest was to make students aware of the negative impact bullying has on others, to promote positive anti-bullying messages throughout the school and to give students the power to prevent, detect, and report bullying.

The winners of the "Anti-Bullying contest were: Abel Laines, Javier Amaya, Gabriela Recalde and Fiorella Kauffmann. Congratulations!!!

Elizabeth Fire Department Visit

Physical Education teachers, along with kindergarten through second grade scholars of Jerome Dunn Academy School No. 9, welcomed the Elizabeth Fire Department on October 14. The event was held in observance of National Fire Safety Month. Students learned what to do and say when making an emergency call to 9-1-1, how to handle smoke, and how to prevent house fires. They especially enjoyed the tour of the fire truck!

Go Pink!

Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 participated in a pink shirt fundraiser on October 9, 2015, to increase and promote breast cancer awareness.

Over 100 kids and teachers participated and wore pink shirts. This was a great event with participation from all!

Student of the Month

On October 21, Charles J. Hudson School No. 25 celebrated its K-8 "Student of the Month". The celebration was a family affair with honorees sharing a special breakfast with parents as well as their peers.

Students have demonstrated improvements, preparedness, dedication and commitment to learning.

Puppet Show "Super Pig"

Kindergarten through 3rd grade students, from Nicholas M. Butler School No. 23 enjoyed the puppet show "Super Pig" presented by the Blue Sky Puppet theatre. Super Pig portrays how everyday people are confronted with firefighters, medics, lifeguards, teachers, etc. who may not have super powers, but are heroes in their own right.

Breast Cancer Awareness

Winfield Scott School No. 2 team members were pink in honor of breast cancer awareness.

OCTOBER IS

Scarecrows

First grade students made real life scarecrows as part of a how to writing essay. They were a big hit in the halls at iPrep Academy School No. 8.

Halsey (Naf) Academy Of Finance Students Invited To The 2015 Future X Bell Labs Tour

On October 21, NAF -Be Future Ready, Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr. Health and Public Safety Academy of Finance students were invited to participate in the Junior Achievement 2015 Future X Bell Labs Tour.

Students participated in live demos and experienced various facility tours that allowed them to view different corporate departments and ask technology and finance based questions throughout the day. A highlight of everyone's day was Alcatel-Lucent's opening of the "Anechoic Chamber" known as the famous Quiet Room at Bell Laboratories. AOF students and staff members experienced standing in what was once cited in the Guinness Book of World Records as the world's quietest room. The JA 2015 Future X Bell Labs Tour provided an opportunity for our students to learn new and valuable information directly from industry experts.

Autism Speaks

Team members from iPrep Academy School No. 8 participated in the AUTISM SPEAKS WALK.

AUTISM SPEAKS™
It's time to listen.

Grandparents Day

Nicholas M. Butler School No. 23 celebrated Grandparents Day with Pre-K and Kindergarten students. Each student had the opportunity to have breakfast and share a kissing handcraft activity with his/her grandparent(s).

The students also had the chance to have their photo taken with their grandparent(s). They had an awesome time sharing this moment and are looking forward to many more activities at our school.

Fall Harvest

The 10th Annual Fall Harvest Fest was held at Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., ECC School No. 52.

Students participated in "fall" activities that included, pumpkin decorating, wagon rides, musical chairs and pumpkin volleyball. Class pictures were taken alongside a backdrop of haystacks and cornstalks. A special thank you is given to the staff and the parent volunteers for making this a special event!

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, While most people are aware of Breast Cancer, many are unaware of the important steps necessary to combat this disease. The best way to fight Breast Cancer is to have a plan for early detection.

On October 23, team members at Joseph Battin School No. 4, wore pink. By wearing pink, everyone was reminded of how many lives have been affected by this disease and encouraging each other to come up with their own plan of Prevention and Early Detection.

Elmora School No. 12 Strives for Excellence!

Should standardized tests be banned in grammar schools? This was the topic Elmora School No. 12's Debate Team argued at Union Catholic High School for the Union County Fall Debate Competition. Although students had their own point of view, the challenge was that students were not told until they were ready to debate which side to defend, pro or con.

Raising Awareness at School No. 7

Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 had the honor of meeting a young woman named Katrina Young. Katrina is a 10-year-old NJ girl who has been bravely battling Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL).

To show their support, Terence C. Reilly sponsored a whipped cream pie challenge to raise awareness for childhood cancer. The entire TCR community was involved, from collecting money and creating an atmosphere of giving to receiving a cream pie in the face. Terence C. Reilly raised over $4500 from this event.

School No. 2 Held 1st Community Event

Winfield Scott School No. 2 held its First Annual School Community Event. Representatives from the YMCA and Shim's Academy attended. Students were very excited to show off their work and to see familiar faces from their neighborhood.
