1. Excellence News

Thanksgiving Feast

On Tuesday, November 22, 2016, the pre-k students, PTO Committee, team members, and family members of Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 Annex 5B gathered in the school gymnasium for a Thanksgiving Feast.

The school had many special visitors such as Mayor Christian Bollwage, Superintendent of Schools Olga Hugelmeyer, Assistant Superintendents Dr. Jennifer Cedenio and Rafael Cortes, Board Member Stephanie Goncalves and Board Member Elect Diana Barbosa, and Principal Yvonne McGovern.

This event was sponsored by PTO Committee members: Mrs. Brenda Griggs, Ms. Theresa Mazza, Ms. Jessica Morse, Ms. Janet Hasegawa, Ms. Bridget Kelly, Mrs. Maria Siggia, and Ms. Jean Balchunas. The PTO Committee Members would not have been able to have an outstanding event without Vice Principal, Mrs. Linda Ferreira and PTO President Luisa Silva.

A special thanks to everyone for their participation and making this fest a huge success.

String Students Perform with the NJSO Youth Orchestras

On Dec 4, twelve String students from William F. Halloran School No. 22@31 performed with the NJSO Youth Orchestras at their Winter Concert at Science Park High School in Newark.

Under the direction of Maestro Jeffrey Grogan, Naomi Youngstein and many other NJSO coaches and artists, the students enjoyed a lovely afternoon playing for a huge audience and participating in music clinics.

The NJSO Youth Orchestras give qualified middle and high school students unparalleled opportunities to achieve personal and musical excellence; provides quality learning and performing experiences; and builds a unique culture of collaboration.

Hour of Code

Second grade students at Abraham Lincoln School No. 14 learned about coding under the direction of Mrs. Caruano.

Students learned how to program "My Robotic Friend" using a series of symbols, then assisted each other in debugging the program until they were successful.

Giving Back

Board Vice President, Maria Carvalho, visited Nicholas Murray Butler School No. 23. She presented fifth grade students from Ms. Demoleas's class with a certificate for gathering many boxes of cake mixes and some other things for the Portuguese Lions Club to distribute in their Christmas boxes for the needy.

Friday Night Fall Family Fun Canvas Painting

John Marshall School No. 20 invited the staff of Dibble and Dabble Creativity Center to facilitate a full canvas painting session for students, parents, faculty and staff. This was a wonderful opportunity to unleash your inner creativity and paint your very own masterpiece. Painting is a therapeutic activity that reduces stress and restore mental energy.

National Healthy Eating Week

Toussaint L'Ouverture – Marquis de Lafayette School No. 6 community celebrated the American Heart Association's National Eating Healthy Week with morning announcements that provided healthy eating facts and tips. Students had the opportunity to discuss these recommendations in their classroom among themselves along with their teachers, enjoy new and exciting healthy lunch choices, which included vegetables, salad, fresh fruit and yogurt parfaits. The elementary classrooms created a healthy eating bulletin board that is on display for our school members to enjoy. Our school mascot motivated the students while helping delivering fresh fruit to our classrooms during our afternoon Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program.

Parents Become the Students at Terence C. Reilly

Parents were invited to visit Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 in recognition of American Education Week. During this time, parents were given the opportunity to experience a "day in the life of a Reilly student." They attended different classes and had the chance to interact with their students, classmates and teachers. It was a pleasure to see so many parents visiting and being an integral part of the Terence C. Reilly learning community.

Run, Ms. Ravines, Run

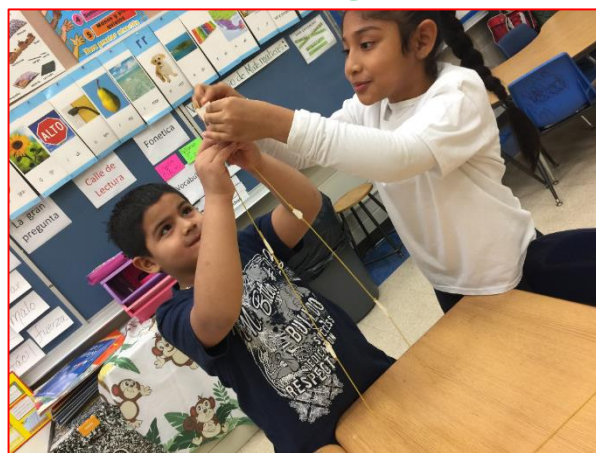

Ms. Luz Ravines, a special education teacher at Juan Pablo Duarte – José Julián Martí School No. 28, ran the marathon 2 times in one month this fall.

Specifically, Ms. Ravines completed the 26.2 miles of the New York City Marathon in 4 hours 32 minutes on November 6th, 2016. She then went to run the Philadelphia 26.2 miles marathon, and completed it in 4 hours and 6 minutes. It qualified her for the prestigious Boston Marathon, which she plans to run in 2018.

School No. 23's STEM Marshmallow Challenge

On November 23, Nicholas Murray Butler School No. 23 engaged in a school-wide Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) activity. Students from grades K-8 worked in groups to construct a freestanding structure using spaghetti and marshmallows. The STEM Marshmallow Challenge was a fun and instructive exercise that encouraged groups to collaborate using reasoning skills, and emphasized the importance of diverse perspectives. The results ended with many smiles and lessons to learn and take with them for the next STEM activity.

Thanksgiving Feast

Ms. Caulfield's and Mrs. Sarmiento's third grade classes at iPrep Academy School No. 8 gathered together to share a Thanksgiving feast. The students got to enjoy the feast while discussing all the things that they are thankful for. It was a fun time filled with gratitude and joy!

What are you thankful for?

"Feeling gratitude & not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it" - William Arthur Ward.

John Marshall School No. 20 has so much to be thankful for, they have created a Wall-of-Thanks to usher in the Thanksgiving Holiday. It was a beautiful expression, joining all members of our school community in true thanks-giving spirit. In fact, students and team members were so full of gratitude and thanks-giving that next year a bigger wall is needed!

Turkeys in Disguise

Ms. Llano's class from Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27 read the story Turkey Trouble. They then were to disguise a turkey and make sure Farmer Brown did not catch it for Thanksgiving dinner. Students had a wonderful time creating different disguises for their turkey. Afterward, they wrote a story to go along with their disguise convincing you that it was not a turkey. Some of the disguises included a mermaid, a minion, a Colombian farmer, ballerina and a Santa Claus.

Data Driven Instruction

Team members from Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr. Health & Public Safety Academy joined together to analyze student performance on the December 5th Professional Development Day. The purpose of this meeting was to take student data and turn it into actionable steps to improve what students are doing in class.

Positive and productive conversations between the teachers and administration made the Professional Development day successful and rewarding for all.

Board Member Visits School No. 13

On Tuesday, December 6, 2016, Board of Education Member, Ms. Stephanie Goncalves visited the students and team members of Benjamin Franklin School No. 13.

Ms. Goncalves, a former School No. 13 student herself, spent time with current students to discover what they have been learning. Kindergarten students shared examples of words that begin with the short "i" sound, third grade students proudly displayed an interactive notebook page on long and short vowel sounds, and eighth grade students discussed exponential functions and which high schools they were planning to attend. The visit highlighted Ms. Goncalves dedication and commitment to the Elizabeth Public Schools.

Medal of Honor Character Education for Halsey

Vice Principal, Kevin McCarthy, of Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr. Health & Public Safety Academy was fortunate enough to attend a character education workshop featuring Medal of Honor Recipient Brian Thacker (Vietnam '71).

Mr. McCarthy brought back valuable tools to help support our growing Marine JROTC program and continue the character education for all of Halsey's students. Mr. McCarthy reported, "It was a great honor to meet and speak with a living example of perseverance, courage, and service."

Special thanks to all who serve and look forward to enlightening this generation to the sacrifices and rewarding nature of service to others.

Student of the Month Celebration

Parents joined the Leadership Team at George Washington Academy of Science & Engineering School No. 1 during American Education Week to celebrate students selected as Student of the Month.

Watt- worthy students were honored for their leadership, hard work, and good citizenship at the monthly celebration breakfast!

A Special Visit from Princeton University

Luisa Goytia, Elizabeth Public Schools graduate visited Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy Annex to share a message of encouragement and inspiration for all students. Luisa is a junior at Princeton University with a Computer Science major. Luisa not only shared her tremendous inspiring story as an immigrant but also informed students of the process to get into college.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Dr. Antonia Pantoja School No. 27's Thanksgiving food drive committee, together with their Partners in Sharing Village ShopRite of Elizabeth, were able to make 40 lucky families happy this past Thanksgiving.

On November 21, School No. 27 held a special Thanksgiving breakfast to give out 90 thanksgiving baskets with turkeys, pies, canned and dried goods to families. Store Manager Manny DaFonseca and other employees of Village ShopRite visited the school and helped give away the baskets.

Visit from Elizabeth Fire Department

The Elizabeth fire fighters visited the children of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., ECC School No. 52 to conduct Fire & Safety Prevention.

The Fire Inspector presented lessons to the children on how to stay safe at home when parents/family members cook; role-played with mini kitchen pots and pans, provided each child with a fire fighter hat and provided an opportunity for children to see the Foam Fire Truck.

Honolulu International Karate Competition

Two of Winfield Scott School No. 2 students, Ruby Cintron (8th grader) and Pearl Cintron (3rd grader), were selected to participate the Honolulu International Karate Competition held in November. Only the most elite athletes from around the country were invited to fly out to Hawaii to attend. Pearl earned two first place gold medals and Ruby earned a second place silver medal.

Hamilton Unites

In keeping with National Bullying Prevention Month, Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy, observed Unity Day - Together Against Bullying. This is the day everyone can come together—in schools, communities, and online — and send one large ORANGE message of support, hope, and unity to show that all are united against bullying and united for kindness, acceptance and inclusion.

College Experiences Continue at School No. 16

New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) welcomes Madison-Monroe School No. 16. Principal, Ms. Abruzzese and Vice Principal, Ms. Gaeta Alvarez emphasized the importance of college to 7th & 8th grade students and wanted them to have the experience on a college campus. Guidance counselor, social worker and teachers organized a visit to NJIT for a college tour and information session, which included discussions on academic programs, SAT requirements, GPA standards, athletic programs, student living/dining and financial aid information.

Breakfast Fundraiser

On November 5, the first grade classes at Abraham Lincoln School No. 14 held a pancake breakfast fundraiser at Applebee's in Linden. Guests included many family and friends of School No. 14, and breakfast orders were served by teachers.

Assisting the teachers were several members of The National Junior Honor Society. Besides breakfast, there was a photo booth, face painting, activity sheets, and tattoos for all of the many children that joined us on that day.

Reading Time

Mabel G. Holmes Annex 5B pre-k students enjoyed having visitors come to their classroom to read a book. Eighth grade AVID students from the School No. 5 main building had an opportunity to interact with the students during "Work Time" and read stories to them. This was a very rewarding experience for all.

School No. 12 Hosts its 1st Marking Period Scholar Ceremony

Parents applauded their children, from Elmora School No. 12, as they walked on stage to receive their honor roll certificates. Along with certificates, students received an Elmora School No. 12 Pin of Excellence, which displays an Eagle and the quote, School 12-A Place to Soar. Over 75 students received a scholar and twelve students received Superintendent Scholars. Following the ceremony, students and teachers celebrated with cake, coffee and juice. School 12 is grateful to its PTO for purchasing these pins of excellence and treating scholars and families to a sweet treat for their accomplishments!

Mock Presidential Election

On November 4, seventh and eighth grade students at Toussaint L'Ouverture – Marquis de Lafayette School No. 6 participated in a Mock Presidential Election.

The Social Studies classroom was transformed into a polling place where students modeled the true voting process. Complete with poll workers, sign-in sheets, and ballots students had their voices heard by voting for one of the major party candidates currently running for President of the United States.

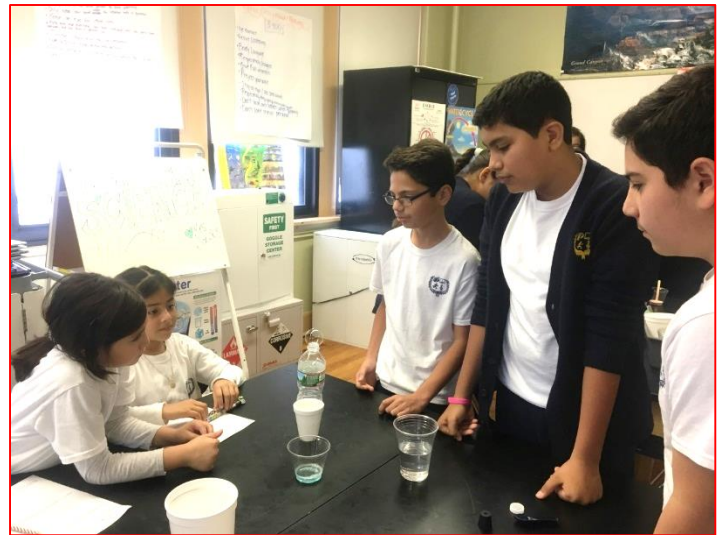

“Drama Kids” Perform “Little Mermaid, Jr.”

On November 4, 5 and 6, the William F. Halloran School No. 22@31 PTO “Drama Kids” joined forces with Thomas Jefferson Arts Academy and presented Little Mermaid, Jr.. Working in collaboration was a great experience for all of the students involved. They learned every aspect of theater production from costume design to set building to lighting and audio. In addition, they practiced choreography! In December, this same group will present “Elf, the Musical, Jr.” This performance will be a benefit performance. All monies for tickets sold will be donated to the Disabled American Veterans Organization (dav.org) or in lieu of purchasing tickets, patrons may bring a new, unwrapped toy to be donated to “Toys for Tots”.

Science Buddies Bloom at Terence C. Reilly

Mrs. Jacobs, a BASF 2016 Grant winner, and Mrs. de la Pena, the NJ Agricultural Society’s Teacher of the Year 2017, challenged 8th grade science students from Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 to design a lesson teaching third graders about expansion and contractions of molecules. They were given a variety of materials, such as dish soap, water, plastic bottles, balloons to demonstrate what happens when air particles are exposed to high and low temperatures. Student groups were given a choice on the resources they used to demonstrate and teach the lesson to the third graders, who will also learn about expansion and contraction of molecules. The eighth graders enjoyed being teachers and the third graders loved the friendships they made with the older kids. It was great to see the two grade levels experience science together. The classes plan to continue to collaborate across the grade levels whenever the curriculums align again!

Student-Led Instructional Rounds

George Washington Academy of Science & Engineering School No. 1 students participated in an eye-opening Student-Led Instructional Rounds. Teams of eighth grade students, instructional coaches, and administrators visited four classrooms and then discussed what they observed using the RAC Walk-through Rubric. Students offered feedback based on the evidence collected on their classroom visits.

Students completed a small narrative on their experiences, below are some examples:

"During these observations I saw with my own two eyes students from the classes were really excited to learn as they were eagerly raising their hands." – Al'Shamiyah McClain

"Teachers were doing a good job of explaining the material to students who did not comprehend." – Raymarie Capellan

"Expereince was very interesting and it gave me a chance to see from a different perspective." –Stephanie Meza

"My experience was very interesting, it felt weird to be in the point of view of the adults." – Ivan Polanco

Nicholas S. LaCorte-Peterstown School No. 3 Participates in Operation Gratitude to Support Troops and Honor Veteran's Day

What do you do with that leftover Halloween candy? Nicholas S. LaCorte-Peterstown School No. 3 was able to find a way to make good use of over 33 pounds of treats by donating it to Operation Gratitude. The school community did not just stop there. Letters were written and artwork drawn to further support veterans, wounded warriors, deployed troops, and new recruits. Special attention was also given to veterans who were related to School No. 3's team members. The school community came together to thank those who gave so much.

American Education Week

During the week of November 14, Frances C. Smith ECC School No. 50 celebrated American Education week in various ways. Walls and bulletin boards were decorated with patriotic colors and themes of red, white and blue.

On Monday, students brought in paper apples telling what they liked about their teachers. Teachers read these student comments throughout the day, and students were treated to an assembly with the Taiko Drummers.

On Tuesday, students dressed up as community helpers, teachers discussed the roles of different community helpers, and parent community helpers were invited to discuss their jobs. On Wednesday, students discussed what they would do if they were a teacher. On Thursday, parent-teacher conferences were held. On Friday, a patriotic songfest led by the music teacher in individual classrooms, with students wearing red, white and blue to school.

Presidential Election 2016

Red, White and Blue, can we predict the future for you?

The nation just experienced one of the most divisive presidential elections in modern memory. Families and students at Woodrow Wilson School No. 19 had a lot to say about issues that defined the campaign; students are concerned about jobs, a more humane approach to immigration, access to good health care, and better schools. Hence, on Friday, November 4, 2016, the gymnasium transitioned into an election station complete with sign-in forms, stickers, balloons and a polling booth.

Under the guidance of Miss Cespedes, Mrs. Farrell, Ms. Picciano and Ms. Ortiz orchestrated a student election with support provided by Mrs. Ruela, Mr. Downey, and Mrs. Aller. The day was filled with red, white and blue as the younger students voted using a photo recognition system and older students, were able to sign-in to a voter registration log, take a voting ticket and vote in a private and secured booth. In the school election, Hillary Clinton won by a landslide; students wanted the first female president to be named this year.

As you now know, the prediction did not match reality; Donald Trump was named the winner of the US Presidential Election.

Work of Art

Ms. Harpster's after school art class at iPrep Academy School No. 8 have been working diligently the last few weeks painting chairs for the Kindergarten classes.

Students presented the chairs to Ms. Kiniery's Kindergarten class.

A Good Cause

Elizabeth Board Member Jose M. Rodriguez donated over 195 pounds of turkey to the families at Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 Annex 5B. The families and students were thrilled to receive a turkey and also received a box filled with canned and boxed goods for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Elizabeth Board Member Jose M. Rodriguez also delivered a turkey to one of the student's home. It is great to see that the Elizabeth Board of Education continues the progress and seeks the best interest for the students, families, and community.

Every Child, Achieving Excellence!

WHEREAS, school boards strive to provide the resources necessary to meet the needs of all students, including those with special needs, and

WHEREAS, boards of education provide accountability to the public, communicate the needs of the school district and convey to school administrators the public's expectations for the schools, and

WHEREAS, New Jersey schools rank among the nation's best, in areas such as high school graduation rates, class size, college entrance exam participation, Advanced Placement offerings and test scores.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Elizabeth Board of Education recognizes and embraces the services of local school board members throughout the State of New Jersey and joins communities statewide in observing January 2017 as School Board Recognition Month.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, to acknowledge and show appreciation for the indispensable contributions of time, effort and support exhibited by local school board members, that this resolution be spread on the official minutes of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

YBOARD OF EDUCATION*RESOLUTION*ESTABLISHING MONTHLY AGENDA MEETINGS

WHEREAS, the Elizabeth Board of Education plans to adopt a schedule of public Board meetings for the 2017 calendar year; and

WHEREAS, the Board believes that public meetings should be held in a manner which will provide the Board with a greater opportunity to receive information and discuss matters to come before the Board in advance of Board action; and

WHEREAS, the Board is of the opinion that the goal of providing its members and the public with more information and a better understanding of the matters to be considered and voted upon by the Board at the monthly business meeting can be best achieved through the scheduling of a monthly public agenda setting meeting at which the administrators of the Elizabeth Public School District and others can present information regarding items proposed for consideration by the Board and the Board can discuss such issues in advance of the regular Board meeting.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Education hereby determines that beginning February 2017 it will schedule a regular monthly public agenda meeting to be held one week prior to the regular monthly meeting of the Board; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that at such agenda setting meeting the members of the Board sitting as a Committee of the Whole will receive, consider and discuss information concerning items proposed for approval of the Board and will determine if such items should be placed on the agenda for a vote by the Board at the regular Board meeting the following week; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Superintendent and such personnel as she may designate shall establish a process and procedure, including fixed deadlines, for submission of items to be reviewed by the Board. At the Board meeting in January 2017 the Board will establish a schedule of agenda setting meetings for the balance of 2017.
