Excellence is doing ordinary things extraordinarily well. John W. Gardner

Students Explore Career Choices at CTE Showcase

The Elizabeth Chapter's American Spirit Group of SkillsUSA organized and hosted a Career and Technical Education (CTE) Showcase at Thomas A. Edison Career and Technical Academy in celebration of CTE Month. The showcase featured various careers, including retail services, automotive technology, construction technology, printing services, process technology, education, and a host of others.

Local career professionals who participated in the event include members of Elizabeth Public Schools, City of Elizabeth, Elizabeth Police Department, Elizabeth Fire Department, Judge Carl Marshall and the United States Military.

Middle school students from George Washington Academy of Science & Engineering School No. 1 and Winfield Scott School No. 2 were invited to participate in hands-on activities and games related to each career booth visited.

SkillsUSA advisor Penelope Hudeen said that the CTE showcase was an enriching experience for all involved. The students she advises shared a similar sentiment about the event.

On March 17, middle school students from Juan Pablo Duarte-José Julián Martí School No. 28 attended the Union County Teen Arts Festival. Sixth through eighth grade students created paintings, drawings, and mixed media pieces that were displayed and critiqued at the event.

Two student actors from the Willy Wonka Jr. cast performed a scene from the play which highlighted the song "Think Positive." Select members from School No. 28's guitar ensemble performed Green Day's Good Riddance (Time of Your Life). The judges were very impressed and complimentary. The participating students were also able to enjoy art, dance, and theater workshops on the day of the event.

Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 Celebrates A Night at the Apollo

Terence C. Reilly School No. 7 paid homage to the historical landmark, The Apollo Theater located in Harlem, New York. During the show, the audience learned some of the background history of the Apollo. Some of the performances that were highlighted were from Mrs. Miller's 4th-8th grade Dance Classes grooving to the smooth sounds of Motown. Eighth grader, Sean Quaye, gave a standup comedy routine that kept everyone laughing. There was even a rousing performance of My Favorite Things from Terence C. Reilly's own 8th grade Science Teacher, Mrs. Jahari Jacobs. 8th grader Nyrohobi Barrett stole the show with her energetic performance of Respect from the legendary Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin. A Night at the Apollo certainly was a day to remember.

Excellence Week's Spelling Bee

During William F. Halloran School No. 22 @ 31's Excellence Week celebration, students held their annual Spelling Bee competition for grades 2nd-8th. Competition was intense this year as many of the former champions attempted to defend their title against the newcomers. Congratulations to the following students for winning this year's Excellence Spelling Bee: 2nd grade-Elena Velasquez-Wu and Alayna Lugo; 3rd grade-Anthony Jimenez; 4th grade-Sebastian Vega and Jaedon Zae-Leon; 5th grade-Tanya Ghani; 6th grade-Faris Areigat; and 7th grade-Michael Chaves and Vlariel Espinosa (8th grade students are still in competition winner TBA).

Celebrating Honor Roll Students

On March 9, proud parents, guardians, and family members gathered for a morning of celebration at George Washington Academy of Science & Engineering School No. 1. The event began with an assembly in which all Honor Roll students were individually recognized, in addition to students who continually work to their fullest potential. Following the assembly, family members gathered to share a bountiful breakfast with their children. The turnout of parents and family members was a testimony to the influence they impart on their children. School No. 1 is proud to celebrate both hardworking students, as well as the adults in their lives!

March is Youth Art Month

Elmora School No. 12 is proud of their young artists!

Fifth grader, Isabella Cruz and kindergarten student, Audree Bondareenko, from Mrs. Downey's Art class, presented their Art Projects at the annual Union County Art Educators of NJ Art Exhibit.

Isabella's Klimt Art Project and Audree's Starburst Heart Mosaic are displayed at the Plaza at the Elizabeth Town Gas Company/Liberty Hall Center.

At the closing ceremony, both Audree and Isabella received many art supplies along with certificates of recognition from county representatives.

Thank you Mrs. Downey for empowering students to thrive through their artwork!

School No. 29's 2nd Grade Book Talk

Dr. Albert Einstein Academy School No. 29's students participated in many different activities to celebrate Read Across America. Students were invited to dress like their favorite characters, participate in Wacky Wednesday and pajama day while enjoying green eggs and ham. Students also were permitted to immerse themselves in literature. Ms. Dorta's second grade bilingual class had the opportunity to share their favorite books during this week and enjoyed their own version of a Bilingual book talk. Students integrated Language Arts skills such as identifying plot and theme into the conversations based on their favorite book selection. The book talk culminated in a visit from Mystery Reader Ms. Guas who shared a folktale from her native country and shared personal connections with the class that the students truly enjoyed hearing.

Sciencetellers

Students from Donald Stewart ECC School No. 51 participated in a collaboration of science experiments and high intensity learning with Sciencetellers.

This interactive experience included experiments exploring the concepts of air pressure and chemical reactions all while taking a journey through storytelling. Students were mesmerized by the changes they observed and were eager to continue exploring science related activities as young scientists.

New Jersey State Senator Raymond J. Lesniak Visits Hamilton

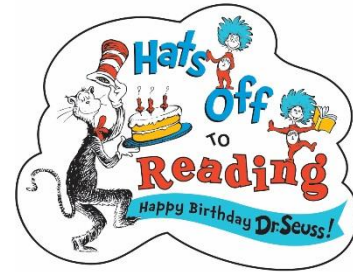

Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy welcomed Elizabeth's very own Senator Raymond J. Lesniak as a guest speaker. Hamilton's students taking AP United States Government and Politics students and AP United States History students were honored to hear from one of New Jersey's Senators.

Senator Lesniak impressed students with his extensive knowledge of local and state government. The students were very excited to meet Senator Lesniak and learn firsthand information on the duties and responsibilities of his position.

This opportunity allowed students to get first-hand knowledge of government and politics and helped supplement what they were learning in the classroom.

Books & Bagels

John Marshall School No. 20 hosted Books & Bagels. It was a family reading celebration where students and parents in grades kindergarten through third grade read books and ate yummy, green bagels on March 17, 2017.

Read Across America

During the week of February 27 through March 3, Frances C. Smith ECC School No. 50 enjoyed the fun rhyming stories of Dr. Seuss along with daily themed activities. On Monday, students wore pajamas to school and their family members came to school to read to students. Everyone wore silly hats on Tuesday. Wednesday was crazy socks day. The annual Seussville fair was held on Wednesday, with students matching socks for Fox in Socks, fishing for One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish, watching a Dr. Seuss movie, Oh, the Places You Could Go bike riding, and doing a variety of Seuss inspired craft activities. To close the week on Friday, the school held two activities: author Barbara Steingas and illustrator Denny Velazquez read their book Fluffy (The Cat) Goes to the Dentist / Fluffy (La Gata) Va a la Dentista, and a magical Seuss concert was held by students, including a visit by The Cat in the Hat himself.

Read Across the School

Juan Pablo Duarte - José Julián Martí School No. 28 held its second annual "Read Across the School" to celebrate Read Across America Week.

All students in grades Pre-K through Grade 8 took their favorite book and went outside their classrooms for a 20-minute reading period. Teachers, support staff, and all other faculty members were reading as well. This is a great school event to promote literacy and love of reading!

Teaching the Little Ones at Terence C. Reilly School No. 7

Written By: Ariana DiLandro 8th Grade

During language arts classes, Mrs. Rubin's 8th grade students were tasked with a project of creating Paper Bag Stories for the children in Terence C. Reilly School No. 7's Pre-K classes. Each eighth grader created two bags based on a kid's book of their choice. The bag had to be decorated with specific scenery from the book. Inside the bag were puppets based on characters from the book along with the story itself and fun worksheets/activities about the story. The Paper Bag Stories were personally delivered from the creators to the kids. The kids instantly loved them and were excited because they could take the story bags home. Eighth grade students were very pleased with bringing joy to all the Pre-K students.

Ellis Island

On March 22, fifth graders from Toussaint L'Ouverture – Marquis de Lafayette School No. 6 enhanced their knowledge of immigration with an exciting visit to Ellis Island.

Throughout the day, students learned a plethora of information about this historical gateway for over 12 million immigrants to the United States. While touring the main building's three levels, students experienced Great Hall, the baggage room, and learned of the overall immigration process at Ellis Island. This visit was accompanied by breathtaking views of New York Harbor and the Statue of Liberty.

Scholars Were Poppin!

Nicholas S. LaCorte - Peterstown School No. 3's students celebrated the second marking period academic accomplishments with a Social Scholar Popcorn Party.

All scholars were able to choose from a variety of flavorful popcorn, while socializing with their fellow classmates.

National School of Character & Promising Practice Award

School Principal, Mrs. Rodriguez and a teacher, Mrs. Villar, from Donald Stewart Center for Early Childhood School No. 51 received the National School of Character award in Washington D.C. “National Schools of Character are schools, early childhood through high school, that have demonstrated through a rigorous evaluation process that character development has had a positive impact on academics, student behavior, and school climate”(character.org). In addition, School No. 51 has been selected as a Promising Practice by Character.org for its dedication in celebrating diversity during Multicultural Week. Congratulations to School No. 51 for making lifelong connections!

Scholars Soar like Eagles

Elmora School No. 12 hosted its 2nd Marking Period Scholar Ceremony on March 22.

Over 250 students received a scholar and scholars were called up to the stage to receive their certificate and an eagle pin which stands for “Soaring for Excellence” School 12’s Motto.

Parents, students, teachers and staff members celebrated with cake, coffee and juice. Many parents took pictures of their child with their teacher holding up their certificates and wearing their pins. Parents openly thanked the teachers for all they do.

NJHS Induction

On Thursday, March 23, 2017, William F. Halloran School No. 22 @ 31 inducted 47 seventh and eighth graders into the National Junior Honor Society. These students embody the five characteristics of scholarship, leadership, character, service and citizenship.

The students were chosen based on a cumulative GPA of 3.85 from 6th -8th grade, an application and an essay.

During their membership in the NJHS, they will have to complete service hours both in and out of school. It was a very proud night for the Husky Family!

Ice Cream Reward

Ronald Reagan Academy School No. 30 celebrates students' academic achievements, Peer Leaders, and National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) with ice cream sundaes every marking period.

No One Eats Alone

The children of Winfield Scott School No. 2 decided to participate in "National No One Eats Alone Day." On that day, middle school students made sure that all children were included at lunch. The students played games and worked to ensure that all kids felt included, valued and accepted by their peers.

Stay Connected with your Elizabeth Public Schools!

Bowling Competition

On April 2, five students from John E. Dwyer Technology Academy participated in the Spring Tournament Bowling Competition for the Special Olympics of New Jersey. Gissel Lainez-Reyes won a silver medal. Christopher Phillip, Gilberto Saucedo and Steve Morales won bronze medals, and gold medal winner, Diogo Cunha, qualified to try out for the National Bowling Competition in 2018! The students worked hard for this accomplishment, and the entire Dwyer community is very proud of how far they advanced in the bowling competition.

NJ Environmental Protection Agency Visits Hamilton

The Environmental Science Class of Alexander Hamilton Preparatory Academy taught by Ms. Ali, hosted guest speaker Mr. Sukkar, of the NJ Department of Environmental Protection. The students had hands on experience with the Enviroscape. The students modeled scientific phenomena such as acid rain, non-point source pollution and surface runoff. Students observed preserved insects in vials and learned how to identify them.

Mr. George E. Mikros, Principal and Mr. Gonzales, Vice Principal, also attended the session and stated that hands-on experiences engaged students and enabled them to gain an in-depth comprehension of rigorous subject matter.

Youth Art Month

March is Youth Art Month. As a member of Art Educators of NJ, Mrs. Ada Flores recognized three students of Madison - Monroe School No. 16 who participated in the Union County Art Educators of NJ Youth Art Month Exhibit.

Jocelynn Cadena, Kindergarten, Raxell Banegas, 4th Grade, and Gianna Mercado, 6th Grade, whose piece of art advanced to the exhibition in the Art Educators of NJ Youth Art at state level (State YAM winner).

Special thanks to Mrs. Ada Flores for her hard work and dedication.

The Granny Awards

Victor Mravlag School No. 21 fifth graders performed their musical titled, "The Granny Awards." Bringing together the concept of 'The Grammys' and well known beloved fairy tale characters, the fifth grade had the audience smiling and laughing all night. Ms. Richa is incredibly proud of the students' hard work and dedication that helped make this show a success!

Autism Awareness

April is Autism Awareness Month in which is a time to educate the community and students about autism. The pre-k students, family members, and team members of Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 Annex 5B marched in a parade around the school to celebrate Autism Awareness. Spreading autism awareness is a great way to celebrate April and promote inclusion and acceptance in the classroom and beyond.

Annual Applebees Flap Jack Breakfast

On March 11, Nicholas S. LaCorte Peterstown School No. 3 held their annual Applebees flap jack breakfast at The Jersey Garden Mall.

This year, team members served over 100 breakfasts to students and their families. In continuing the Read Across America celebration, every family had the opportunity to have student volunteers from the high school to read a story aloud at the breakfast table.

Additionally, every student received his or her own book to take home. Students also had a very special opportunity to meet The Cat in The Hat!

Family Literacy Night

Parents and students of Abraham Lincoln School No. 14 enjoyed a special celebration of the birthday of Dr. Seuss.

On March 2, families came together to have fun reading together, solving puzzles, and playing games. There were photo opportunities, face painting, and even a special visit from the Cat in the Hat!

Crazy Hats

Showing their Seussical side, sixth grade students at Dr. Orlando Edreira Academy School No. 26 donned crazy hats. Dr. Seuss Week festivities for the sixth graders also included a Crazy Hair Day, Wacky Socks Day, Guesstimation Day and Wearing Green.

Students received certificates of participation and Dr. Seuss prizes for all activities completed. Several students also read to their kindergarten buddies as well.

Shaping Up For A Cause...

To inspire Robert Morris School No. 18 to raise money Principal Oscar Crespo, Jr. sacrificed his pride and his hair.

Alex Velez, a School No. 18 parent, and professional stylist did the honors; the results were perfect!

This was not just any haircut though; the winning class was able to pick a hairstyle of their choice. Mrs. Loomis' Kindergarten class raised a whopping $676 and decided Mr. Crespo would look great with his hair shaped like a LIZARD!

Not only was this a fun event for the school but the School No. 18 family was able to raise an incredible $4,657. Mrs. Stromko's 4th grade class also raised $470 and will throw pies at Mr. Crespo next week. All money raised will go towards Leukemia and Lymphoma research. The program could not have been a success without the hard work of Ms. Mary Lou Arnaud. Thanks to everyone involved in this incredible fundraiser!

Disney's Musical, Aladdin

Students from, John Marshall School No. 20, participated in the Disney's Musicals in Schools Program and presented their performance of Aladdin.

Students and team members worked tirelessly on choreography, singing, staging, set production, and costume designing. Their hard work certainly was recognized by the school community and all stakeholders.

Students of the Month

Ronald Reagan Academy School No. 30 celebrates Students of the Month every month. Students were selected for their contributions in the school and in the community.

These students are good role models for other students. They infuse the Seven Habits in their daily lives.

PTO Promotes Car Seat Safety

Frances C. Smith ECC School No. 50 held a PTO meeting including a presentation on car seat safety.

During the meeting, two free car seats were raffled off to the crowd of families attending the meeting. Union County Freeholders Vice Chairman, Sergio Granados and Board Member, Diane Barbosa were in attendance. It was a fun evening with good company and valuable learning.

Kean University

Eighth grade students at Winfield Scott School No. 2 went on a field trip to Kean University to see the play The Children of Wilesden Lane by Mona Golabek. The play was based on the book of the same name, which is the true story of Mona's mother, Lisa Jura who dreamed of being a concert pianist during the Holocaust. Students in Mrs. Greenberg's Language Arts class and Ms. Benamy's Music class are studying the Holocaust. The students enjoyed this powerful performance.

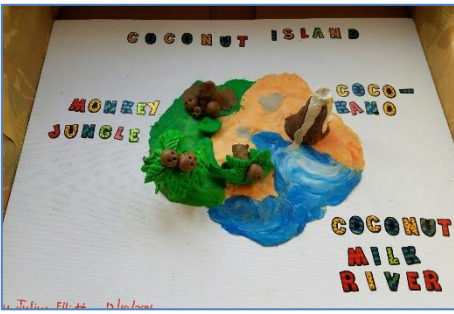

Honor Roll Scholars

Victor Mravlag School No. 21 is proud to announce that there were 231 honor roll scholars from grades 1-8 for the second parking period.

5th Grade Makes Their Own Islands

Ms. Demoleas 's 5th grade class, from Nicholas Murray Butler School No. 23 made their own islands of the sea, land, or in the desert, for science class. Dioramas depict how their imagination runs wild in creating any type of islands if given the chance they would live on.

Curious George Turns 75!

Curious George is always curious, gets into mischief and celebrated a special birthday this year. Students in Mrs. Phyllis Taub's fifth grade class at Madison - Monroe School No. 16 honored the literary icon with essays written about what they were curious about. They also completed a study of the incredible lives of Hans and Margaret Rey, as well as enjoying a glimpse of what life was like when George's books were first published.

Principal, Ms. Abruzzese added to the celebration by giving George a shiny birthday ribbon.

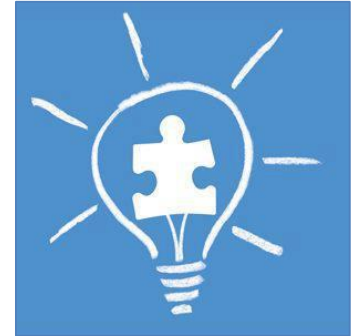

Bring a Buddy to School Day

Mabel G. Holmes School No. 5 Annex 5B hosted a day in which the preschoolers can bring a buddy to school. The family members and parents had an opportunity to spend time with their child and interact with them during the school day. It was a memorable experience in which the preschoolers and families enjoyed together.

Autism Awareness Walk

In recognition of World Autism Awareness Day (WAAD), Joseph Battin School No. 4 planned a day of activities to raise awareness and understanding about this multifaceted neurobiological disorder known as autism spectrum disorder (ASD).

For grades K-5, students participated in a scavenger hunt which involved reading and answering clues to find hidden blue puzzle pieces. A large puzzle was assembled in the gym symbolizing the mystery and complexity of ASD. Since every puzzle piece is different, this accurately represents the diversity of the individuals affected. Each class designed a poster to educate and advocate for autism awareness. In the afternoon, all students participated in a walk around the school in solidarity with the district's goal to support children and families affected by autism.

Autism Awareness Tree

A display, which hangs across from the main office for all to see, illustrates how the teachers and paraprofessionals of the Moderate Cognitive Program (MOC) worked diligently together in spreading autism awareness throughout Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr. Health and Public Safety Academy under the support of Principal Jeff Roszkowski.

Autism awareness is promoted at Halsey Health and Public Safety Academy to assist in the continued awareness within the school community and the development of self-determination of all students.

The students of Halsey Health and Public Safety Academy have always been supportive and accepting of their peers in the MOC program since they first entered the school community in 2007. Lastly, team members are encouraged and reminded each week to wear blue on Wednesdays in April to show their support, respect and acceptance of autism.

Indoor Track & Field

This calendar provides for 181 team member days, 180 student days, and 2 Professional Development Days.

In the event that schools must close for inclement weather, etc., days will be made up commencing with June 26, 2017 with an additional day added to the calendar for each day missed through June 30, 2017 to fulfill the legal requirement of 180 days of school attendance for the regular school year. If additional days are needed beyond June 30, 2017 days will come from Easter Recess commencing with April 21, 2017 and working backward from the end of that week. Administrative offices will remain open until 4:30 p.m. daily except Fridays during summer hours. On Wed., November 23, 2016 all schools will close at 12:15 p.m. for Thanksgiving Recess; administrative offices will be open regular hours and all 12 month employees and all secretaries, security personnel, and custodians will follow their regular schedules.

INVOKING THE DOCTRINE OF NECESSITY

WHEREAS, the School Ethics Act (N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.) was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in school board members and school administrators and to provide specific ethical standards to guide their conduct; and

WHEREAS, the School Ethics Commission has provided guidance in Public Advisory Opinion A03-98, regarding how a Board should invoke the Doctrine of Necessity when a quorum of a board of education has conflicts of interest on a matter required to be voted upon; and

WHEREAS, the opinion set forth that, when it is necessary for a Board to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity, the Board should state publicly that it is doing so, the reason that such action is necessary and the specific nature of the conflicts of interest; and

WHEREAS, in keeping with the Legislative purpose as set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a), the School Ethics Commission views public disclosure of conflicts of interest to be paramount when it is necessary to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity; and

WHEREAS, The Elizabeth School District Board of Education is in receipt of an advisory decision dated March 20, 2017 from the State of New Jersey Office of Administrative Law ("OAL"), which states that four members of the Elizabeth Board of Education had a conflict of interest at the time they voted for the hiring of the interim Assistant Superintendent of Schools for Human Resources; and

WHEREAS, the Elizabeth School District Board of Education intends to challenge that advisory decision and will do so before the School Ethics Commission; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary for the Elizabeth School District Board of Education to make certain personnel decisions with regard to Assistant Superintendents and other personnel which are mandated by statute and regulation and which cannot be delayed during the pendency of the challenge to the advisory opinion; and

WHEREAS, the OAL advisory opinion, unless overturned disqualifies four Board members from voting for the personnel decisions, which must be made by June 30, 2017; and

WHEREAS, at least one additional Board member is disqualified from voting for the aforementioned personnel decisions by virtue of familial interests.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Elizabeth School District Board of Education hereby invokes the Doctrine of Necessity for the reason of approving certain contracts to positions of employment with the Board of Education and that it must do so because of the conflicts of interest for five of nine board members who have conflicts due to their familial and employment interests.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Elizabeth School District Board of Education is herewith meeting the requirement to read the resolution at its regularly scheduled April 2017 public meeting, and will post it where it posts public notices for 30 days and will provide the School Ethics Commission with a copy of the resolution as required by the Decision of the School Ethics Commission.
