Thousands of EPS High School Students Attend Teen Health Expo

On May 19, 2015, Elizabeth Public Schools held its eighth annual Healthy Leap into Summer health expo in collaboration with organizers Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce President, James R. Coyle and Trinitas Regional Medical Center Chief Clinical Officer and Vice President of Clinical Operations and Physician Services, Nancy DiLiegro, PhD, FACHE. The health expo, which is the largest teen obesity awareness program in the United States, according to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, took place in the Dunn Sports Center at 151 Pearl Street, in Elizabeth.

The one day program is designed to promote healthy lifestyles to high school students while addressing the epidemic of teen obesity.

Over 2,000 students from the district's six high schools participated in workshops, received health screenings and had the opportunity to learn from interactive exhibits provided by organizations from Elizabeth and the surrounding community. Among the many popular exhibits were Bodies Against Bullying, the New York Red Bulls street team, and the U.S. Army rock climbing wall.

The expo concluded with a rally including guest speakers, performers, and contests for students. Competition winners of healthy poster, dance and selfie contests each received $500 scholarships. Students also earned tickets from various exhibits and workshops which they entered to win FitBit Zips provided by the Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce.

American Pop/R&B recording artist Miesa entertained students at the rally with her songs Don't Judge Me and the recently-released single, Blame My Ex.

The event was once again a success thanks to the exhibitors who graciously volunteered to provide students with valuable health information.
